March 17th/18th 2018 - Fifth Sunday of Lent

❖ Mass for the coming week:
 Monday to Friday at 10.00a.m.

❖ Fifth Sunday of Lent

The Old Testament talks about a covenant between God and his people. Then there is a new covenant brought about by the death of Jesus. "This cup is the new covenant in my blood."

First Reading: (Jer. 31:31-34)

The prophet Jeremiah tells a very disappointed people that God has not forsaken them, but will soon make a new and more intimate covenant with them.

Second Reading: (Heb. 5:7-9)

Through his obedience and suffering Christ became the source of eternal life for us.

Gospel: (John 12:20-33)

In his death Christ will be glorified and this will bring life to those who follow him.

❖ 5th Sunday of Lent – In this season of Lent, we pray that all families will grow in the understanding of God's great love for every person, as the source of how we care for one another.

❖ Easter Pastoral Offering Envelopes containing the Easter Schedule have now been distributed to parishioners' homes. Spare envelopes are available from the tables at the back of the church. Thank you.

The annual CROSSCARE Youth Services collection will take place this weekend. It will replace the normal Share collection.
 Thank you for your continued support.

The annual Advocate collection for Sunshine House will take place after all Masses next weekend. The Sunshine Fund, a special works conference of the St. Vincent de Paul, provides summer holidays for children all over Dublin who need a holiday. This is their only source of funds.
