Jeremiah accuses the leaders for neglecting their people. Whatever misfortune has befallen the people, the leaders must shoulder responsibility. In Jesus, we see a caring leader, a Good Shepherd who looks after his people.

First Reading: (Jer. 23:1-6)

The leaders of Israel are indicted for their neglect of the people, but better leaders are promised.

Second Reading: (Eph. 2:13-18)

By his death Christ broke down the wall between Jews and Gentiles and united all people as children of the one Father.

Gospel: (Mark: 6:30-34)

We see the care of Christ for his apostles as well as his compassion for people.

❖ As we prepare for the World Meeting of Families, we pray that our families will give a special priority to prayer at home and discover new energy for service through an encounter with the living God.

❖ Adoration every Wednesday evening in the church from 8p.m. to 9p.m. All welcome.

Welcome into our parish the children who were baptised during the month of June, they are – Oisín, Darcie, Ayla, Hannah, Áine, Oliver, Conor, Rian, Tara, Quinn and Finbarr.
